Class Information

Thank you for signing up for the SeeSaw site! It will be fun to see the online album while the year progresses. We are planning on posting all of our pictures to this site throughout the year. Homework: There is a sight word page going home today. The kids need to bring by Wednesday. I am sending spelling homework on Wednesday but it isn't due until Friday morning! I thought I would give the kids a few days to complete their homework.

Our Learning

This week, we're reading First Day Jitters. In class, we are learning about character, setting, and plot. The students are keeping track of who is in the story, where and when it takes place, and what happens.
